W.P.No.4712 of 2004

Heard Mr. Gurudev Sharan, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr. Prashant Mishra, learned Additional Advocate General with Mr. Sanjay S. Agrawal, learned Government Advocate for the State of Chhattisgarh / respondents.

This writ petition has been filed for quashing the tender notice advertised in news paper on 22.09.2004 with regard to some construction work.

On 13.07.2005, the Court passed order calling upon the learned counsel for the petitioner to satisfy this Court as to why the petitioner has filed this petition as PIL. Despite the said order, Mr. Gurudev Sharan, learned counsel for the petitioner has not been able to satisfy the Court as to how the petitioner is interested in this writ petition. He himself did not intend to submit the tender nor as he indicated anywhere in the writ petition about the locus standi to file this writ petition except stating that he is a peace loving and a public spirited citizen of India.

We have serious doubts about the locus standi and bonafide of the petitioner in filing the petition and we accordingly, dismiss the same.
